Unile the single-track line from Arys to Loetzen (R 55/A 59) was operated, the line from Arys to Johannisburg (R 54/A 54) had been dismentled and apparently was not scheduled to be reopened by May 1952. After the evacuation of Soviet troops, gradually the Polish Armed Forces reconditioned the training camp. Some units were permanently stationed at the camp while others rotated to the camp from various posts between about March and fall. Troops from other posts usually arrived by train and also included units which came from the direction of Lyck.
